Crochet Hairpin Rosette

By: Dawn from Sew Ritzy-Titzy

Imagine pulling a hairpin out of your coifed hairdo and proceeding to crochet a rosette with it!.....Hi! I'm Dawn from Sew Ritzy~Titzy and while I won't pull a hairpin out of my hair, I will show you a project that involves a hairpin, crochet hook and simple sc stitches that will become a darling rosette.

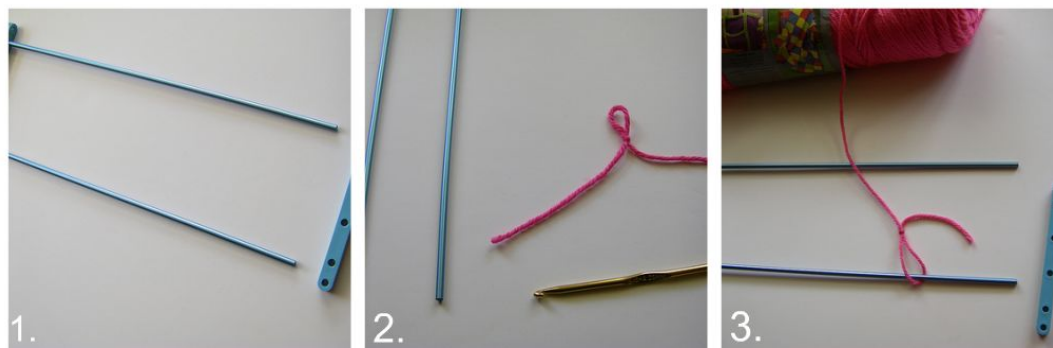

Let's begin.

Pic 1: This is the hairpin frame. I actually snagged this one at the thrift store, but I know they are readily available in craft stores.

Pic 2: Make a slip knot with your yarn (I used weight 4 yarn and a G crochet hook.)

Pic 3: Slide the bottom off of the frame and place slip knot on left bar. Make sure the knot is centered. Wrap the yarn around the right hand bar and to the back. Slip bottom bar back in place. You can determine the width of your loops by the project you are doing. Mine is spaced about 3 inches.

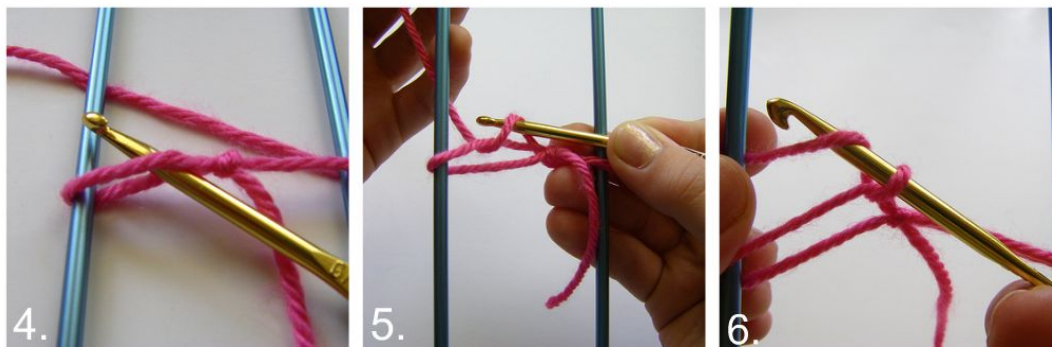

Pic 4: (At first, it will seem very wonky to have hold the frame and make a sc. I hold the frame against my stomach to steady it. Whatever works for you.) Now take your crochet hook and slip it under the front edge of loop.

Pic 5: Yarnover and pull up loop.

Pic 6: Sc 1.

Pic 7: Now take your crochet hook and turn it upside down. This seems so awkward at first, but this too will come! While holding the hook upside-down, take the frame and turn it 180 degrees. Pretend it is a book and your are turning the page. It is just like that! You should now have a 'new loop' wrapped around the right bar.

Pic 8: Slip your hook underneath the front of the loop. Yarnover and pull up loop.

Pic 9: Sc 1.

Repeat directions from pic 7-9 until you have desired no. of loops on bars.

Pic 10: You will need 24 loops on both sides of frame for this rosette.

Pic 11: Cut yarn and tie off end.

Pic 12: Cut a small amount of yarn and thread through tapestry needle. Slip off bottom bar and before slipping off the loops, thread the needle along the edge.

Pic 13: Continue to thread the edge until you reach the last loop.

Pic: 14: Carefully slide off loops.

Pic: 15: Gather thread and knot. You will see the rosette taking shape.

Pic 16: Join by tying ends together and weave ends into rosette. You can leave rosette just as it is or add a crocheted border. For a border --around outer edge, sc in each loop -- keeping loops twisted! Make 2 chs between each sc. Join to form a ring.

Pic 17: By moving hairpin bars closer together, I crocheted a smaller rosette to sew to larger rosette. And a fun button to complete it!

Twinkle Star

By: Deb Holladay for Kreinik

Use light-reflecting thread to crochet twinkling stars for gifts or ornaments. These would make lovely Christmas tree ornaments or handmade card embellishments.

Materials:

- 2 tatting shuttles (one areo shuttle and one tatsy shuttle, for example)
- size 10 or smaller crochet hook for joining if a hook is not on either shuttle
- Kreinik Medium(#16) Braid in color 032 (you can also use
- Fine (#8) Braid in 032 for a more delicate snowflake-star)
- 20 pearl beads
- a needle small enough for threading the beads, but large enough to thread with the braid

Instructions:

Thread on the braid the 20 pearl beads. Then wind the larger shuttle. This shuttle will do most of the work. You can either clip threads or unwind from the spool of thread enough to wind the other shuttle.

* With the shuttle with no beads, make an r of 3ds, 3p sep by 1 ds, 3ds, cl r and rw.

Ch of 3 ds, 3 p sep by 3 ds, 3ds, does not rw. Pick up the shuttle with the beads on and make next ring as follows. On this next ring, slip up one bead for each r made.

R of 3ds, J to last p made on the chain, 3ds, add the bead into the p, 3ds, p, 3ds, and cl r.

R of 3ds, j to last r, 3ds, add the bead into the p, 3ds, p, 3ds and cl r.

Repeat the last ring. This makes a cloverleaf. Switch shuttles to the one with no beads.

Ch of 3ds, j to matching p of last r, 3ds, 2p sep by 3ds, 3ds rw.

R of 3ds, j, 3ds, 2 p sep by 3ds, 3ds, cl and rw. Switch shuttles again.

Ch of 3ds, slip a bead into the p, 3ds, Rw and switch shuttles again*

Continue from " to " till you have 5 points to the star. Tie and trim the edges the way you are most comfortable with.

Alternate idea:

Use any color Kreinik Braid and matching beads to make the star a different color. It's beautiful in a light metallic blue!
